See you on the courts, let's keep them busy

Jack Henricks (1933 - 2016)
Obituary

Born on the 4th of July, 1933, proud nephew of Uncle Sam. He played pickleball for a couple of hours, applied his intellect to duplicate bridge, then went to sleep and his spirit flew away. Many will miss his charm, his intellect, his athleticism, but most of all his generosity of heart. Educated at Colorado School of Mines and Harvard University, a world traveler, and forever a North Dakota small-town boy. He leaves his children: Kay Mathis of West Sacramento, Karyn Hodgens of Rocklin, Nicole Lippold of Ventura, Stephane Burguet of France, and Jayd Henricks of Maryland. Please do an act of kindness in his honor.
